

NUA Instructional Strategies

The strategies listed below are used by NUA Consultants in the classroom and in teacher workshops. They are based on recognized principles of learning and are all useful for involving students actively in learning while challenging them to think and achieve at the highest levels.

Intensified Accelerated Learning	Thinking Maps
Act Out Adjectives and Adverbs	Brace Map
Dancing Definitions	Bridge Map
Essential Summaries	Bubble Map
Synonym Triplets	Circle map
Good and Better	Double Bubble Map
Someone is Talking	Flow Map
Highly Recurring Phonic Elements	Multi-Flow Map
Phonic Pattern Word List	Tree Map
Pronoun Boxes	Frame
Panel Book
Thinking Strategies	Writing as Learning
Anticipation Guide	Composing with Keywords
Read Talk Write / Listen Talk Draw	Defining Format
Imitation Writing	Interactions and Personifications
Key Word Prediction	Taxonomies
Key Word Notes	Writing Frames
Scrambled Sentences	Metacognition
Readers Theater	Morphology
Cubing	Sentence Stretchers
Facts and Inferences	Notebook
List Group Label	Quotable Quotes
Freyer Model	